Safe Harbor Statements

This presentation may contain certain statements about Colfax Corporation (“Colfax”) and Charter International plc (“Charter”) that are or may be “forward-looking statements”— that is, statements related to future, not past, events, including forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current expectations of the management of Colfax and Charter (as the case may be) and are naturally subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances and involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such forward-looking statements. In addition, these statements are based on a number of assumptions that are subject to change. The forward-looking statements contained in this presentation may include statements about the expected effects on Charter and Colfax of an offer for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Charter International plc (the “Offer”), the expected timing and scope of the Offer, strategic options and all other statements in this document other than historical facts. Without limitation, any statements preceded or followed by or that include the words “targets”, “plans”, “believes”, “expects”, “aims”, “intends”, “will”, “may”, “anticipates”, “estimates”, “projects”, “seeks”, “sees”, “should,” “would,” “expect,” “positioned,” “strategy,” or words or terms of similar substance or the negative thereof, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements relating to the following: (i) the satisfaction of the conditions to the Offer and other risks related to the Offer and actions related thereto; (ii) Colfax’s ability to complete the acquisition of Charter as planned, and risks relating to any unforeseen liabilities of Charter; (iii) future capital expenditures, expenses, revenues, earnings, synergies, economic performance, indebtedness, financial condition, losses and future prospects; (iv) business and management strategies and the expansion and growth of Colfax’s or Charter’s operations and potential synergies resulting from the Offer; (v) the effects of government regulation on Colfax’s or Charter’s business, and (vi) Colfax’s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions generally. Factors that could cause Colfax’s results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to factors detailed in Colfax’s reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as well as its Annual Report on Form 10-K under the caption “Risk Factors”, as well as Colfax’s ability to complete the acquisition of Charter as planned, Colfax’s ability to achieve expected synergies in connection with the acquisition and risks relating to any unforeseen liabilities of Charter. Due to such uncertainties and risks, investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof. None of Colfax or Charter undertakes any obligation to update publicly or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except to the extent legally required. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a forecast, projection or estimate of the future financial performance of Colfax or any of its subsidiaries, the Charter group or the combined business following completion of the Offer, unless otherwise stated. Except for information relating to Charter, the directors of Colfax accept responsibility for the information contained in this presentation. To the best of the knowledge and believe of the directors of Colfax (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this presentation is in accordance with the facts and contains no omission likely to affect its import. The directors of Charter accept responsibility for the correctness and fairness of the reproduction in this presentation of information relating to Charter, which has been compiled from published sources.

CERTAIN CONSIDERATIONS UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

The securities of Colfax referred to in this document have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”), and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Act.

The issuance of Colfax shares to Charter shareholders will not be registered under the Act, and will be issued pursuant to the exemption provided by Section 3(a)(10) under the Act. In the event that Colfax determines to conduct the acquisition pursuant to an offer other otherwise in a manner that is not exempt from the registration requirements of the Act, it will file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) that will contain a prospectus. In this event, investors are urged to read these documents and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information, and such documents will be available free of charge at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov.
